PRESIDENT'S REPLY MAY BE ON WAY TO BERLIN

BELIEVE NOTE IS
A FLAT REFUSALSECRETARY OF STATE ANNOUNCES HE WILL RE-CEIVE NEWSPAPER MEN AT 4 O'CLOCK
THIS AFTERNOON.WILSON PUTS FINAL TOUCHES ON DOCUMENT DURING THE MORNINGOfficial Washington Confident That Central Powers
Will Be Informed Only Unequivocal Acceptance of Conditions Will Be Considered.

Washington, Oct. 8.—President Wilson's reply to the German and Austrian request for an armistice and peace negotiations probably will be dispatched before night, if it is not already on the cables.

After being called into conference by the president with Colonel House and Secretary Lansing, Secretary Tumulty announced today that Mr. Lansing would see the newspaper correspondents at 4 o'clock and "probably would have something for them."

The president had spent the entire morning in his study and was believed to be putting in final shape a document upon which he worked nearly all day yesterday.

None of those in the president's confidence would give an intimation of his decision, but when the conference was over there was no change in the confident belief throughout official circles that an armistice would be flatly refused and the central powers informed that unequivocal acceptance of conditions laid down by the United States and the allies must precede any meeting of peace plenipotentiaries.

SAYS GERMANY WILL RESIST HUMILIATION

Amsterdam, Oct. 8.—Germany's new ministry is one of national defense as well as of peace and is prepared for a stand to the end against a humiliating peace. Dr. Bernhard Dernburg, former German minister of the colonies, declared in a statement, according to Berlin advices.

ITALIAN PRESS ASKS
FOR ABSOLUTE VICTORY

Rome, Monday, Oct. 7.—"We must have absolute victory. Any kind of negotiation is now more than ever inadmissible," the words of President Wilson immediately after the rejection of the Austrian peace proposal, are reprinted by the Epoca in large type as summarizing the attitude of Italians towards the new peace movement.

"Austria seeks to cheat Italian national aspirations by simply returning to the status quo, which means a permanent irreconcilable conflict between Italy and Austria as long as the latter keeps under her rule territories inhabited by Italians."

COMPERS CONDEMNS
LATEST PEACE MOVE

Rome, Oct. 8.—Samuel Compers of the American Federation of Labor who is here with a delegation of American labor leaders, strongly denounced the recent peace move of the central powers, saying that the new German maneuver seeks to weaken the unity of the Democratic nations and lessen their fighting spirit.

BERLIN EDITOR SAYS
OFFER IS THE LIMIT

Amsterdam, Oct. 7.—Commenting on the address by Prince Maximilian, the new German chancellor, the Tagesblatt of Berlin says:

"All Germany, or at any rate, that great, honest and good Germany which is inseparable from the German people, has done what is right and necessary. Why haven't we learned earlier to know ourselves?"

"Unbroken stands our front on enemy land," the newspaper continued. "We shall be able to defend ourselves more easily against an entente attack through Bulgaria than against Russia, whose millions vainly threatened us for three years. Many a flourishing countrywide must be laid waste and hundreds of thousands of lives must be sacrificed by the enemy if this maximum of our concessions does not suffice them."

The Vienna Reichspost writes:

PICTURESQUE VETERANS OF ITALY'S ARMY
ARE AIDING IN LIBERTY LOAN CAMPAIGN

New York, Oct. 8.—(Special)—Equally as valiant and picturesque as the men of the famous Blue Devils and the Foreign Legion are the members of the detachment of Italian veterans who have come to the United States to aid in the fourth Liberty loan campaign. Four types of Italy's warriors are represented in the detachment which consists of 208 men and nine officers.

The "Bersaglieri" are better known in America, perhaps, and consequently the greater interest was taken in these fighting mountaineers. The other representatives in the visiting force are the "Arditi," the "Grenadiers" and the "Alpini." The "Arditi" are a special corps of shock troops, picked men trained in close up knife and bayonet fighting. The "Grenadiers," all of whom are six feet or more, are famous fighters. All of the visiting members have been wounded three or more times.

HALF BILLION DAILY
TO COMPLETE QUOTA

Washington, Oct. 8.—Subscriptions to the fourth Liberty loan must average more than $425,000,000 daily if the total six billion dollars is to be raised by the close of the campaign on October 19.

The half-way mark in the campaign was reached today with total subscriptions as reported by the federal reserve banks to the treasury amounting to only $1,323,716,950, eleven working days of the campaign yet remain. In the eleven days that have passed slightly more than $120,000,000 worth of bonds were sold.

Campaign officials today reiterated the warning against allowing the German peace proposals to lessen the efforts of the workers or the ardor of the public.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Camp Sherman, Chillicothe, O., Oct. 8.—Ninety-three more soldiers died at Camp Sherman from Spanish influenza between 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon and 11 o'clock this morning, according to reports made by military authorities. A total of 576 soldiers have now died from the disease at the camp. According to official reports very few new cases were reported in camp today.

Influenza, grip and all the kindred ailments still hold sway throughout the state, and in Newark yesterday one death resulted from the malady when Grace Montgomery, colored, succumbed. In the state there are 25,000 cases in 98 communities. All schools, theaters and churches were closed at Marion and Ashland.

Reports continue to come of the death of men in camp and outposts. George Starrett, 21, of Lost Run road near St. Louisville, died at Camp Sherman, Saturday morning, and Irwin Scott Varney, 39, of Hoover street, died at Niagara Falls.

Acting in accord with the health boards orders yesterday the school children who showed any symptoms of cold or illness were sent home. However the conditions in school are improved today and only about one fourth are absent. It seems to be worse in different sections, the Woodside, Central and Mill streets schools suffering the worst, while the Keller, Riverside, Hudson and North Fourth street buildings are not greatly affected.

Dr. J. P. H. Stedem, greatly commends the set of rules for prevention printed in the Advocate Saturday, and today said: "If people would but observe these common sense rules there would be no spread of the disease and the epidemic would soon be completely wiped out."

INFLUENZA CAUSES
LOCAL SELECT'S DEATH

Irwin Scott Varney, 39, died at Camp Niagara, Niagara Falls, N. Y., this morning of influenza. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Varney, 95, of Erie street. He went to Camp Sherman in April and was transferred to Niagara two weeks ago.

He leaves four sisters and one brother, Gladys, Hazel, Ada and Grace and Gilbert. The body will arrive Thursday.

FRIGHT CAUSES MANY
DEATHS OF INFLUENZA

Corporal Frank Drake stopped over in Newark Monday evening on his way from Sunbury to Camp Sherman, having been to that village in charge of the body of a soldier who died there of influenza. Drake states that the epidemic has been the means of driving a greater part of the soldiers in camp to their quarters to prepare to combat the disease. He also stated that many of the fatalities were undoubtedly due to the fact that these afflicted with the malady give up too easily instead of making an effort to fight and ward it off.

BOND SALES INCREASE
AS ANSWER TO HUNS

Cleveland, Oct. 8.—Gradually overcoming the false impression that the war is over, Liberty bond salesmen in the Fourth Federal Reserve district report that subscriptions are on the increase. The unofficial estimated total early today reached $240,000,000, against $221,000,000 yesterday.

Cleveland's estimated pledges today amounted to $44,000,000 and the Cincinnati committee reports $26,000,000 in subscriptions.

"Here's our answer to the German peace offer," declared a score of men at Tiffin as they paid $5,000 for their second installment of bonds.

Mrs. J. E. E. Allen, who bought $200 worth of the third issue of bonds, gave a check for $10,000 to the collector for Fourth loan bonds, saying: "My three neighbors are in France and I want to help them beat Germany."

Forty-six thousand dollars was subscribed in 16 minutes at a patriotic

FRENCH EXTEND VICTORY.

Paris, Oct. 8.—(Associated Press Telegram)
The French continued their successful advance. The war announcement today says that French troops have reached the outskirts of Conde-sur-Suippe, at the junction of the Suippe and the Aisne northeast of Berry-Aux-Bac.

Along the Suippe river the French have penetrated into Isles-Sur-Suippe and to the west have captured Basencourt.

YANKEES CONTINUE GAINS.

With the American Army, Northwest of Verdun, Oct. 8.—(Noon)
The American troops continued their advance east of the Argonne until late Monday night. After the capture of Chatelet Chehery they gained further ground.

The advance was aided somewhat by the use of smoke-bombs and a heavy fog. A platoon of Minenwerfers was captured.

During the night of Monday was active. There was intermittent artillery firing during the night on account of movements behind the forces.

ENEMY PREPARES TO WRECK BELGIAN TOWNS

Amsterdam, Oct. 8.—The evacuation by the Germans of the Belgian coast region is continuing, the frontier correspondent of the Telegraaf reports. The telephone lines between the frontier and the coast were being taken down yesterday.

The stores of material at Knokke, near the coast, five miles from the Dutch border have been set on fire by the report states, and many factories have been undermined in preparation for their quick destruction.

TORCH CONTINUES TO BE HUN'S BEST WEAPON

Amsterdam, Oct. 8.—(Reuters)—There has been little movement on the front between the Argonne forest and the Meuse during the past 24 hours. Circumstantial reports that the enemy is moving troops and weapons northward from Somme and from the Argonne continue to come in but he is still leaving enough men to hold his positions here.

German machine guns are said to be only 15 feet apart, though this sounds like a needless exaggeration and there seems to be a considerable artillery reserve back of the German lines at some points not as yet disclosed.

On the other hand, the French, which was well fortified and held by many machine gun companies, is now being burned to the ground. Grand Pre Dun and Ancreville are also burning. These fires were probably kindled by the Germans and contradict any other evidence there may be that permanent occupation of the region had been intended by the Germans.

TRY TO STOP FRENCH
BY COUNTER-ATTACK

With the French Army in France, Monday, Oct. 7.—(Reuters)—German forces have turned at bay on the north bank of the Suippe river and have been counter-attacking with desperate energy all day.

To prevent crossing the river, they have attacked on the line between Pont-Guist and Berry-Aux-Bac, throwing large units into action on the center of this front.

If the French succeeded in establishing themselves on the north bank of the Aisne in this region, they will immediately turn the German line on the Suippe and also the next enemy position on the Retourné.

Therefore the Germans have attempted to keep the French south of the Aisne.

In spite of the vigor of the enemy's resistance, however, the Aisne has been crossed at Ferry-Aux-Bac, the whole village on the north bank of the river being in the hands of the French, who have also made some progress beyond it. The Germans have also been fighting fiercely along the Arnes.

NORWEGIANS LOSE AS PEACE LOOMS NEAR

Stockholm, Monday, Oct. 7.—But since withdrawal from the Teutonic Alliance and subsequent peace developments have played havoc with Scandinavian shipping stocks, Norwegian papers estimate that 100 war millionaires have been wiped out by the break in the Norwegian shipping securities market. In a single day it is estimated that the value of Norwegian shipping stocks declined 100,000,000 kroner, or about $33,000,000.

COUNCIL OFFERS LAND FOR PLANT

Abandoned Waterworks Site May Be Sold To Industrial Committee, If Needed.

There was a regular session of the city council last evening all members being present when President R. L. Williams dropped the gavel at 8 o'clock. The latest in calling the members to order was caused by a caucus of councilmen held in the clerk's office.

The only business of the evening was the passing of a number of ordinances and the tender by the city fathers of a 20 acre piece of ground to the industrial development committee of the city, and which is the site of the abandoned water works site at Kibler's switch, just north of the corporation line.

After the clerk of council had read the minutes of the previous meeting the mayor's report for the month of September was received and filed showing that fines and licenses had been collected to the amount of $350.

A communication from the sinking fund trustees was received rejecting the proposed $15,000 bond issue for water works improvements for the reason that there was not sufficient funds.

A communication from 18 property owners in Hudson avenue asked for the installation of an additional street lamp. It was referred to the service committee.

An indemnity company on the bond of the Federal Asphalt Company for the faithful performance of its contract in improving Main street, asked to have the bond revoked. The request was received and filed.

The state commissioner of health in a communication to the city asked what steps had been taken to improve the water supply of the city. It was referred to the service committee.

The Newark Gas and Fuel company in a lengthy communication asked for an increase of the present rate, for supplying its patrons with gas. The company asks for an increase of 8 per cent over its present rate, with a minimum charge of 2,000 cubic feet per month, with a 3 cents discount. The communication stated that such an ordinance would be introduced at the next meeting of the city council. The communication was referred to the law committee.

The following ordinances were passed on suspension of the rules:

By Redman—Declaring it necessary to construct a sewer in Cedar street.

By Ashbrook—For the construction of a sewer in South Second street between Summit and Beacon streets.

By Riggs—To issue bonds in the sum of $30,000 bearing interest at the rate of six per cent per annum, to be used for street and sewer improvements.

By Baker—Determining the number of employees in the police department and fixing salaries. There are no changes from the old ordinance, the new one being necessary to lessen complications in those departments.

By East—Authorizing the issuing of a license and granting the right to Steeley & Co. to erect a gasoline tank under the sidewalk along the old Methodist church in Church street.

By East—Determining the number of employees in the service of the city and fixing salaries. The only change from the old ordinance is the granting of $10 more per month to the superintendent of parks.

By Redman—Determining the number of employees in the fire department and fixing the salaries.

By East—To advertise for bids for one year's supply of water meters for the city.

By Baker—To advertise for bids for one year's supply of street lamps.

By Knauber—Declaring it necessary to construct sidewalks on both sides of Burr avenue between South Williams and Union streets.

M. L. Shepard of Channell street asked that a pole be removed which had been erected by the Central Union Telephone company and which was standing about eight feet from the curbing and also that a ditch be filled or taken care of. The service director was requested to look after the complaint.

Councilman Knauber made a motion that the twenty acre tract of land owned by the city in the northern part of town be offered for sale to the industrial development committee of the city, providing a factory is erected thereon. It passed unanimously and if the members of the industrial committee accept the tender of the city it will be placed in legal shape for passage by the council.

It was nearing the 10 o'clock hour and to prevent any further discussion Councilman Baker moved an adjournment.

FRENCH START NEW OFFENSIVE

Drive Northeast of Soissons Makes Important Gain Which Menaces Hun Retreat.

(Compiled from A. P. Dispatches)

Crossing the Aisne at Berry-Au-Bac, the French have brought new peril to the whole German line in the Laon-Aisne and Champagne sectors in France. This advance by General Berthelot's men seems to be a stroke which may be considered in future as the first step in the final operation designed to hurl the Germans out of the positions they have held for so long from the Ailette river to the Meuse.

If the French are able to debouch from Berry-Au-Bac and obtain a bridgehead on the north side of the Aisne, the German forces still clinging to the Chemin-des-Dames along the ridge north of the Aisne, further west, will be compelled to fall back rapidly. At the same time the Germans retreating before General Gouraud's army, further to the east, will find that the Aisne, their apparent objective in the present retirement is not a refuge. It may, on the other hand be but a trap for the shattered forces now streaming back from the Py, Arnes and Upper Aisne rivers.

General Berthelot's wedge has penetrated faster than was expected by the lay-world. It wrested the hills, northwest of Rheims, from the enemy, swiftly swept the enemy back to the Suippe river and then, seemingly at a single bound, reached the Aisne and crossed it at a vital point. It seems to be the most successful blow struck at the enemy during the past week offensive. In the Champagne sector, General Gouraud's French and American troops are closely following the enemy, who is retreating in the direction of the Retourne river. The success of the French further west will probably hasten this retrograde movement by the Germans, who appear to be in a serious condition.

From the Argonne forest to the Meuse, the American army has again struck at the German positions before the Kriemhild line, and a great battle seems to be impending. This sector is most important to the Germans as a defeat there would send them back in the direction of Sedan, through which runs the great trunk railway line which connects the Germans as far west as Laon with Germany. The Americans have brought up their heavy artillery and there is every evidence that a terrific struggle is to be expected in this front. On the western side of this battle-line, the Americans moved ahead yesterday and captured Chateau-Cherey as well as ground just to the east of the village.

British forces have attacked the German lines to the northwest of Douai and have gained ground near that city, which is reported to be in flames. This sector is just north of the front where the "switch line" from Quentin to Drucourt which was broken three weeks ago.

Around St. Quentin there has been heavy fighting, the French being called upon to repel repeated enemy counter-attacks. All of these with the exception of those near Thillois farm, have been repulsed. In local operations in this sector, the French have improved their positions.

Vigorous fighting has occurred in the mountain sector of the Italian front, but nothing approaching a general engagement has been reported.

In Albania the Italians are advancing rapidly after the Austrians who appear to be in full flight before them.

French naval units have entered the harbor of Beirut, Syria, a port through which supplies may be easily transported to the allied armies which are operating in the vicinity of Damascus.

This advance by General Berthelot's men seems to be a stroke which may be considered in future as the first step in the final operation designed to hurl the Germans out of the positions they have held for so long from the Ailette river to the Meuse.

If the French are able to debouch from Berry-Au-Bac and obtain a bridgehead on the north side of the Aisne, the German forces still clinging to the Chemin-des-Dames along the ridge north of the Aisne, further west, will be compelled to fall back rapidly. At the same time the Germans retreating before General Gouraud's army, further to the east, will find that the Aisne, their apparent objective in the present retirement is not a refuge. It may, on the other hand be but a trap for the shattered forces now streaming back from the Py, Arnes and Upper Aisne rivers.

General Berthelot's wedge has penetrated faster than was expected by the lay-world. It wrested the hills, northwest of Rheims, from the enemy, swiftly swept the enemy back to the Suippe river and then, seemingly at a single bound, reached the Aisne and crossed it at a vital point. It seems to be the most successful blow struck at the enemy during the past week offensive. In the Champagne sector, General Gouraud's French and American troops are closely following the enemy, who is retreating in the direction of the Retourne river. The success of the French further west will probably hasten this retrograde movement by the Germans, who appear to be in a serious condition.

From the Argonne forest to the Meuse, the American army has again struck at the German positions before the Kriemhild line, and a great battle seems to be impending. This sector is most important to the Germans as a defeat there would send them back in the direction of Sedan, through which runs the great trunk railway line which connects the Germans as far west as Laon with Germany. The Americans have brought up their heavy artillery and there is every evidence that a terrific struggle is to be expected in this front. On the western side of this battle-line, the Americans moved ahead yesterday and captured Chateau-Cherey as well as ground just to the east of the village.

British forces have attacked the German lines to the northwest of Douai and have gained ground near that city, which is reported to be in flames. This sector is just north of the front where the "switch line" from Quentin to Drucourt which was broken three weeks ago.

Around St. Quentin there has been heavy fighting, the French being called upon to repel repeated enemy counter-attacks. All of these with the exception of those near Thillois farm, have been repulsed. In local operations in this sector, the French have improved their positions.

Vigorous fighting has occurred in the mountain sector of the Italian front, but nothing approaching a general engagement has been reported.

In Albania the Italians are advancing rapidly after the Austrians who appear to be in full flight before them.

French naval units have entered the harbor of Beirut, Syria, a port through which supplies may be easily transported to the allied armies which are operating in the vicinity of Damascus.

Ice Boxes on Wheels

Refrigerator cars for carrying meat are ice boxes traveling on wheels.

Most people in America would have to go without fresh meat, or would have to pay more for what they could get, if it were not for these traveling ice boxes.

Gustavus F. Swift, the first Swift in the packing industry, saw the need of these traveling ice boxes before others.

He asked the railroads to build them. The railroads refused. They were equipped, and preferred to haul cattle rather than dressed beef.

So Gustavus F. Swift had to make the cars himself. The first one was a box car rigged up to hold ice. Now there are 7,000 Swift refrigerator cars. Each one is as fine an ice box as you have in your home.

Day and night, fair weather and foul, through heat and cold, these 7,000 cars go rolling up and down the country, keeping meat just right on its way to you.

Thus another phase of Swift & Company's activities has grown to meet a need no one else could or would supply, in a way that matched Swift & Company ideas of being useful.

When you see one of these Swift & Company cars in a train, or on a siding, you will be reminded of what is being done for you as the fruit of experience and a desire to serve.

POLITICAL FOLLIES.

These are days when inefficiency is not tolerated in private employ. But in public work, as seen in national, state and municipal office, it is easier to "get by." To the ways of the American voter, and some of the follies he entertains and is influenced by, much of this inefficiency is due.

The remarks to follow are not intended to apply to any pending contest, national, state or local. Of course if anyone thinks the coat fits, he can put it right on. The conditions referred to are found in all parties. Most of us have our own well formed opinion as to which party tends to show the more of these tendencies.

Here is one kind of thing very frequently seen, growing particularly out of the kind of thing we call "hyphenated Americanism."

The voters of one group, especially one group having some common ancestry, will get into their heads that they have not had their fair share of the offices. They will vote for a man from their own group, even if they know he is inferior in character and ability to another candidate.

This feeling is usually started by a few ambitious office seekers to promote their own ends. They feel a lot of well meaning but unimpaired people. The result is that candidates with poor qualifications get into power. And in the many localities where this feeling is a factor, we get junk government.

Let us all be straight Americans when we go to the polls. If we are going to get public work well done, we must forget about whether people come from the same race or attend the same church or belong to the same social group or not. We must look for the men with the best record for honesty, ability and common sense judgment. When we put these qualities highest, we shall get better government.

The motorist who are satisfied with 15 miles an hour don't cut a great figure on the road, but you don't very often see the farmers running with fence rails to pry them out from under the car.

BUSINESS DEATH RATE.

Bankers express surprise at the small number of business failures that have taken place during the past year. It is remarkable that so great a readjustment of the country's business was accomplished with so little disaster.

Thousands of small businesses have had to be closed up. Ordinarily when a business is forced to stop, the assets have to be closed out at a sacrifice. If the concern was operated on borrowed capital, this frequently means that there is not enough money to pay the debts.

One thing which of course has helped, is that prices are high on all kinds of merchandise. Any one who has had good stock on hand of essential material has been able to dispose of it at good prices. That has helped struggling little concerns that had to stop, to realize a fair price on their assets.

This means a good deal to thousands of young men who have been drafted, or who enlisted. A fellow will fight with a good deal lighter heart knowing that he has been able to wind up his affairs at home without sacrifice.

The banks are considered to have handled the situation skillfully, so as to keep down the number of failures. They have had a ticklish situation to meet and we are not wholly through the woods yet. It is a time to discourage speculation. People who want to borrow money to operate on the stock market should get a cold stare. But every man who has a little business that he needs to close out should be given all possible accommodations to help him do it without sacrifice. In so far as this can be done, it will give everyone better courage for the difficult readjustment after the war.

Health officer Knauss says that influenza is a germ disease but not a German disease.

The principle news of the fox hunting season is that King Ferdinand of Bulgaria, having consumed, all the smoke he can stand, has emerged from the back door of his hole.

Those folks who growl about gasoline saving will be the same ones who will kick if the war is prolonged because we can't operate enough motor trucks.

Some of these silly people that spread the very harmful lies greatly exaggerating the influenza deaths in the army camps, are the same ones that kick if a newspaper prints a man's initial wrong.

One thing is sure, that the kids that worked all summer to win the school garden prizes, aren't the same ones that hang around our fruit trees on dark nights.

In the great game "over there," the allies are stealing all four bases at once, while the Boche is wondering where he would better throw the ball.

While the soldiers are selling their lives for patriotic sentiment, some of our home folks won't buy bonds because you can't sell them for quite par on the market.

The government won't have to work very hard to discourage building operations among any persons who have observed the charges you have to pay for wages on construction jobs.

It looks as if the allies would soon be passing up their plates for Turkey, and telling the carver whether they prefer white or dark meat.

Some of the registrants who are trying hard to get Ex-empted now, will find it means that later they will be excluded from a lot of things.

DISSOLUTION OF GERMANY.

(Ohio State Journal.)
The news is that if Austria drops out of the war, Bavaria, next to Prussia the strongest of the German states, may be the strongest of the beginning of the dismemberment of the German empire, that Bismarck built up after the Franco-German war of 1871. If Bavaria does this, Saxony is likely to follow, and that will prove a speedy ending of the German empire. It will mean the close of the Hohenzollern family rule, which began in 1806, and which, with occasional broken successions, has continued ever since. It is hoped the German empire will be disposed of in this way, and for all practical purposes it is a mere to civilization and democratic institutions. It is hoped that Saxony will join Bavaria in its recession from Germany. It is really the test of the German states and can easily be tested in the league of peace that is to be formed by the victors of the future. What a splendid conclusion of this war of Kultur will be the undoing of Bismarck's structure of absolutism and pan-Germanism!

RHEUMATISM

The Way to Get Rid of It Is to Remove the Cause.

The fact that rheumatism depends on an excess of uric acid in the blood, affecting the muscles and joints, producing inflammation, stiffness, and pain is well established. This excess is due to some defect in the processes of digestion and absorption, and to the inability of the kidneys to eliminate the uric acid from the blood.

Get rid of rheumatic pains and aches by taking this food medicine. (Adv.)

THE ADVOCATE'S TALKING POINT

Among men who have any sound and sterling qualities, there is nothing so contagious as pure openness of heart.—Charles Dickens.

No Need to Raise It.
Food experts without an exception, my land! Advise us to raise all our own garden stuff. But why should we do this, I can't understand. For already it seems to be quite high enough.

Couldn't Refuse.

Aunt Collie says.—Little Otto Salve started in a pole.—Sunday school so his maw dressed him up all nice and clean an' give him a penny for the hotten box last Sunday morning. He come home a-smiling, verry happy an' his maw noticed he had his hand closed verry tight an' says she, "What have you in your hand, Otto?" An' when he opened up his hand she seen two cents in it. "Didn't you put your penny in the box Otto?" says she. He hung his head an' says, "No, I didn't." "Well," she says, "where did you get the other penny at?" she says, "Well," he says, "they passed a plate o' pennies an' I took one," he says.

THE TERMS.

(Philadelphia Record)
Germany can have peace on the same terms as Bulgaria. They are not pleasant terms, and Germany is not quite ready to accept them. At least, it is still hoped in Germany that something less severe can be secured. Thus is a delusion. The general terms will be even bitterer to submit to, but there is nothing else, unless Germany is fanatical enough to carry on a war of total destruction. This it will not do. The attitude of the people toward peace has already demonstrated that they have no intention of resisting to the point of extermination.

It may be believed in the Reichstag, and by the Kaiser himself, that a policy responsible to the Reichstag could get easier terms than a Chancellor accountable only to the Kaiser. This is a mistake. The Allies are not deeply concerned in the internal politics of Germany. They are not seeking to secure popular government for the Germans. They will take their own measures to insure German compliance with all the stipulations of the peace treaty, so that the veracity of the German signatures will not be especially important. We shall welcome the German people to the category of self-governing peoples, but the terms to Germany will not be affected by any change in the character of the Chancellor.

The recent advances of the Allies in the west and the sudden surrender of Bulgaria have struck the German people like a blow between the eyes. They are horrified and dazed, they cannot yet think clearly, or see clearly the situation. They are not yet ready to do. They pretty generally gave up hope of "German peace" some time ago, but have cherished confidence that in consideration of giving up Belgium or France or Alsace-Lorraine they would get some sort of peace. Suddenly the awful truth falls upon them that they will not name the peace terms, and they cannot even get a compromise settlement. They still hope that they can modify the terms. But the appalling fact is forced upon their consciousness that they have been defeated; that they will have to give up a great deal that they now hold, not in exchange for something else but to get peace at all. They reel under the blow.

They can avert invasion only by a prompt submission. The Zeitung am Mittag says: "Our Government has sedulously avoided hinting at this, and the other possibility, namely, that the war may be lost if everybody and everything are not united in the utmost effort." The Frankfurter Zeitung regrets that the Government has failed to impress on the people the fact that Germany did not go into war for lust for power. This is irony, for the Zeitung's article on the Kaiser's anniversary speech charged him with admitting that the war was for empire, and it will be no need that friend to say that Germany did not go into war for lust for power. The paper begs the Government to make peace overtures "unequivocally and sincerely."

Shoes are so scarce in Germany that they are rented by the hour. But the Kaiser would like to give a lease on his 32 years.—Minneapolis Tribune.

The only fault the Allied commanders have to find with the American forces is that the Yankees are so enthusiastic that it is difficult to restrain them once they start ahead and they never know when to stop. It is this spirit that is going to make the great American army absolutely invincible once it gets word to start for Berlin.—Fond du Lac Reporter.

Von Hertling says that events on the western front should not depress the German people. Still, he doesn't propose any celebrations or torchlight processions.—Charleston News and Courier.

If the Allies should cut off communications between Berlin and Vienna, Austria would be in the embarrassing position of not knowing what its national policy was.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

The Kaiser used, in anti-bellum days, to complain that Americans went to France without visiting Germany. There are 1,600,000 Americans in France at present. Now are visiting ready to go, and the whole crowd will visit Germany before returning.—Louisville Courier Journal.

Did You Know
That in Idaho there exists a species of the acacia tree that attains a height of about eight feet? When full grown it closes its leaves in coils each day at sunset. When the tree has thus settled itself for a night's sleep, it will flutter violently if touched, and if you shake the branches it will emit a nauseating odor strong enough to bring on a headache. In Idaho it is called the "hungry tree."

TO FIGHT, NOT TO VOTE.

(Cleveland Plain Dealer.)
A new view of an old question is given in Plain Dealer, the weekly newspaper published by American aviators in France, by Sergeant George W. Lynn, its associate editor. The popular impression in this country has been that our troops in service overseas are anxious to have a voice in America's political decisions. This is not so, declares the sergeant editor.

Isaac Siegel, a Republican congressman from New York City, has been in France and brings back a story that the men of the A. E. F. want to vote in November.

"Siegel has the wrong idea," says Lynn. "The soldiers of the American expeditionary forces have left politics in the hands of you folks back home. We have absolute faith in your decisions. Go to it. We're over here to fight. You've been behind to run things. One of your first duties is to limit politicians to facts."

America has 2,000,000 men in France. The task of setting up the machinery necessary to give each of them a vote at the coming elections is tremendous. In many instances it has been given up as practically impossible. If Sergeant Lynn is right in what he says, the troops overseas will have no regrets if this potential voting power is ignored.

And the chances are altogether that Lynn knows considerably more about it than Representative Isaac Siegel can possibly know. As the sergeant says, Siegel was in France only a few weeks. "There are hundreds of places he did not visit and thousands and thousands of soldiers he did not interview."

Spirit of the Press

American Shotgun.
Secretary Lansing has taken official cognizance of German threats against Americans armed with these guns. The Germans threaten to treat them, if captured, as murderers. Mr. Lansing, for the American government, says that the reprisals will be thorough and effective. It is an inconceivable irony that the nation which introduced gas and flame into this war should be the one to raise a protest in the name of humanity against the use of shotguns by American troops. The shotgun must be an effective weapon in certain situations or it would not be used, and even a mind conventionally open to horror would fail to see the difference between a spray of shrapnel or of machine gun bullets and a spray of heavy shot.—Chicago Tribune.

Economy Spells Patriotism.

From the vast reclamation plant at Tours, established by the American military leaders in France, the people of this country have had placed before them an object lesson of passing importance. In these works more than 5000 men are employed in acquiring and refurbishing the wrecked matter salvaged from the battlefield and camped in this country, prodigal and lavish to the highest degree, it is characteristic of the people recklessly to fling away material belongings when out of the current style. Until the war is over at least, it will be found profitable to imitate the government's work at Tours.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Reprisals for Germany's Outrages.

Nothing is more gratifying to the public than the report that the allies propose to serve notice on Germany that for all unnecessary devastation wrought during the withdrawal of German troops from French and Belgian cities, reprisals will be imposed when German soil is reached. Much as it revolts the natural kindly sentiments of our own people, the allies' reprisals must be remembered that we are not treating with civilized men, but with brutes. Give the Hun a dose of his own medicine, a large one—and he will begin to restrain for retaliation. Every brute is a coward and the German is particularly cowardly when he is at a disadvantage.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Tests Straw.

Experiments have recently been carried out in two Scottish mills for the purpose of determining the yield and of testing the utility of straw pulp. Both wheat and oat straw were tested, and fairly satisfactory results were obtained. A yield of pulp was obtained from oat straw equal to 25 per cent of the weight of bone-dry straw. There is said to be a surplus production of 420,000 tons of straw in Scotland alone.

War is a game of give and take, and just at present we are doing most of the giving.

The first in Chesapeake bay, off Willoughby Spit, Sandy Hook, now Ambrose, light vessel was established in 1823. A light vessel was placed off Cape Hatteras in 1824 and was driven ashore in 1827, and a ship was not established again in this dangerous position until 1897, after unsuccessful attempts had been made to build a lighthouse on Diamond Shoal.

Watch the Tongue of your Young! Your little Pets need Cascarets

Children think Cascarets just candy.
They are safe and mild cathartic candy.
Sell for a dime—"work" every time.

MOTHERS! Clean the clogged-up places. Do away with the bile, sour fermentations and constipation poison which is keeping your little one cross, feverish and sick. Children love Cascarets because to them it is like eating candy. Cascarets act better than castor oil, calomel or pills on the tender stomach, liver and bowels. Cascarets never gripe, never injure, and do not disappoint the worried mother. Give harmless Cascarets to children one year old and upwards. Each ten cent box contains full directions.

TIME TO EXERCISE PATIENCE

Machinery of Business, at Present a Little Out of Order, Will Soon Be Running Smoothly.

Now is the time for all good Americans to be patient. It is true that the times are out of joint. Nothing is done the way it should be done, a plague of incompetence is upon us, there has been a general slowing down in all branches of business and industrial life and a general lowering of the average of social efficiency. But it is the war, and we must have patience. Don't flare up and tell us that it takes ten minutes to get your "party" on the telephone, and then, like as not, it isn't your party at all. You ought to be thankful for any party.

And the elevators! And the clerks! They do not wait on you. You wait on the clerks, oh, so long. And it is going to be worse—for a while. But it is the war, and it is to be expected and we will have to put up with it. Business and industry are in the hands of recruits who have not been to training camp. But they are being trained as fast as possible, and by and by the recruits will be veterans, the times will get back in joint, things will be done the way they should be done, efficiency will again reign, business and industry will be speeded up and all will be well. In the meantime, while the captains of industry are training the rookies and doing their best to get the world running smoothly again, it is up to us to be more patient than we ever were before and smile all the while.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

STEP IN FOOD CONSERVATION

Minnesota Physician Has Discovered Method of Condensing Buttermilk and Retaining Nutritive Value.

In a recent interview with Dr. William Greick of St. Paul, Minn., the fact was brought out that immense quantities of buttermilk have been wasted. Doctor Greick is a member of the American Chemical society and for years has devoted much study to the milk problem. As a result of his efforts a method has been discovered for condensing buttermilk into a semi-solid smooth substance of the consistency of ice cream.

All the nutritive value of the buttermilk is conserved in this product, and it is especially suitable for use in bread making. From eight to ten pounds of this material when added to a barrel of flour produce a loaf of greater food value. The milk protein helps to make up the deficiency in our present-day flour substitutes. The vitamins of the butterfat help to define the structure of the bread, besides producing an agreeable milk flavor; and the sugar of milk, aside from being of great food value, when combined with the dextrin in flour makes a fine brown crust at a comparatively low baking temperature. It saves fuel and prevents unnecessary loss of moisture.

Confession of a Teacher of German.
I began bravely this difficult work of teaching German since 1914, by the hypothesis that the best in Teutonic literature is a revolt against this very militarism we are now fighting, and for a time I deluded myself with the great good that could be accomplished by emphasizing this in such men as Schiller, Lessing and Goethe, as well as in some of the things from such moderns as Wildenbruch and Theodor Storm. But the newspapers made current events too vital for one to spend his hours shoring up the tottering structure of German popularity. Eighteenth century nobility was overcast by twentieth century inhumanity.—September Atlantic.

Ghosts in Maine.
The most tragic incident of the summer is recorded in the town of North Edgecomb. An elderly couple coming home from church saw two ghosts. The ghosts were sitting without apparent feet or legs through the gloaming and over the grass and through other things. They were dressed, of course, in the conventional white of ghosts and ghostesses. The elderly couple legged it like mad. They fell into a cucumber patch and could not extricate themselves. The old gentleman was rather badly injured. They were rescued by the ghosts, who proved to be a couple of farmerettes in calico overalls.—Lewiston Journal.

Value of Discarded Bones.
The Meat Trade Journal of England says that Birmingham has a way of dealing with old bones which is held up by the national salvage council for imitation in other parts of the country. Butchers who sell bones undertake to buy them back after the housewife has made full use of them, paying the customer half the proceeds of their disposal for national purposes. In this way they are saved to the nation, which is urgently in need of the glycerin they contain, as well as of the phosphates for manure and the valuable pig and poultry foods which can be extracted from them. Housewives are showing themselves eager to respond to the government's appeal for bones.

Omar Repudiated.
"A book of verses underneath the bough," began the man who quotes. "That's far enough," interrupted Miss Cayenne. "The loaf of bread must be curtailed to limit the wheat consumption. The jug of wine is out of place in a prohibition community, and even as to the book of verses—I'd rather hear somebody read the war news."

No man likes to cultivate a loser, unless it's in a poker game.

MAKE WAR ON ONION MALADY

Strong Efforts Going On to Stamp Out Disease That Is Known as Neckrot.

To combat neckrot—a destructive storage rot of onions—in various localities of the United States, the United States department of agriculture next season is to assist growers in testing a method of controlling the disease with the hope of putting the method on a practicable basis for commercial use. Specialists of the department will be assigned to the districts affected to advise farmers and to help in the installation and equipment of necessary structures.

The districts known to be infected include the principal onion-growing centers in Massachusetts, Connecticut, Ohio, Indiana, Delaware, Wisconsin and Oregon. The disease occurs in other states also. Losses of from 25 per cent to 75 per cent in white onions have been recorded in the vicinity of Chicago and in northern Indiana. Red and yellow onions are not attacked as seriously as the white variety.

The disease known as neckrot is caused by a fungus. The parasite enters the wounded neck of the bulbs at harvest time and gradually rots the scales until they become dried up and worthless. Of the control measures that have been tried, artificial drying of the onion sets in crates just after harvest has given the best results. The object of this method is to cure the necks as soon as possible, and thus check the fungus before it enters the flesh scales. In various lots treated recently the rot was reduced from 14 per cent to 1 per cent; from 47 per cent to 7 per cent; from 53 per cent to 7 per cent, and from 92 per cent to 10 per cent.

RAILROADS USE MUCH COAL

Require Almost Twenty-Five Per Cent of the Total Output of the Country.

Figures compiled by C. E. Lasher of the United States geological survey show that 136,000,000 tons of bituminous coal, 6,735,000 net tons of Pennsylvania anthracite and 22,950 tons of coke were used by the railroads in the United States in 1916. The increase in the quantity of bituminous coal used by the railroads in 1916 was 14,000,000 tons, which was 11.5 per cent more than 1915. The increase in the consumption of anthracite by the railroads was but 535,000 net tons, or 8.5 per cent. There was an increase in railroad consumption of nearly 4,000,000 tons of coal from Illinois, about 2,800,000 from Ohio and of 4,800,000 from West Virginia. The quantity of coal from Pennsylvania used by the railroads decreased nearly 3,000,000 tons.

The quantity of bituminous coal used by the railroads in the eastern district increased from 55,500,000 to 62,700,000, or 11 per cent. The increase in the Southern district was from 22,000,000 to 23,300,000, or 5.1 per cent, and in the Western district, from 43,500,000 to 50,000,000, or 15 per cent.

The total quantity of bituminous coal used by the railroads was about 27 per cent of the total production as against 28 per cent in 1915. The Pennsylvania anthracite used by the railroads in 1916 was 7.7 per cent of the total anthracite produced and the combined bituminous and anthracite used, 142,735,000 tons, was 24 per cent of the output, the same as in 1915.

Making Life Worth While.

To increase your earning capacity, you must be an energetic, live specimen of humankind. You should be throbbing with surplus power. You should possess a degree of strength that will give you confidence and courage and endurance. Then you can go on day after day, relates a writer, adding to your skill and knowledge and power in your profession. And when you have climbed to the highest point on one sphere of endeavor, you will be ready to look around for other work, and continue to experience the delights that come only with the daily struggle, required for the attainment of the objects one has in view. Do not forget the value of systematic effort. Do not waste your energies. Intelligent direction is all-important. Force, to be of value, must be applied at the proper place. Effort, to be productive of reward, must be directed by superior intelligence.

Made the Account Even.
"There's nothing like reprisals," said a recruiting officer. "A tobacco-nut sent a doctor the other day a $10 box of cigars, saying he knew they hadn't been ordered, but they were so excellent he was sure the doctor would enjoy them. Bill inclosed. Terms strictly cash."

"The doctor wrote back:
"Delighted with the cigars. Though it is true you haven't called me in, I venture to send you herewith two prescriptions for rheumatism and dyspepsia, respectively, that I am sure you will like, as they have given universal satisfaction to my patients. My charges being $5 for prescription, we are now quits."

Effective Shells.
Controversy has long raged regarding the actual man-killing power of the big guns. It has been declared that $20,000 worth of big shells must be fired to kill one of the enemy. Perhaps it is true that an enormous amount of steel must be hurled by the big guns to insure fatalities. Yet the actual number of men killed on all sides by artillery fire probably runs into the millions.

TWO EX-PREMIERS IN CABINET

Situation in British Politics That Has Never Before Occurred Is Among the Possibilities.

Herbert H. Asquith, former premier, is often mentioned as a possible addition to the present cabinet. The Manchester Guardian points out that if this happens Lloyd George will have two former prime ministers among his subordinates. There is no former instance of this state of things in modern history, and it is a long time now since an English government contained in a secondary place even one former premier.

The classical case occurred about the middle of last century, and is furnished by the game of see-saw which was played by Lord John Russell and Lord Palmerston. In the government of 1846-52 Lord John Russell was prime minister and Lord Palmerston foreign secretary, and in the government of 1859-65 their two positions were exactly reversed.

It was Lord John Russell's exceptional fate to be prime minister from the age of fifty-four till that of sixty, to be in and out of subordinate office, under Lord Aberdeen and then under Lord Palmerston, from sixty to seventy-three, and at that age to be prime minister again.

If Lloyd George gets Mr. Asquith as well as Mr. Balfour he will have all the living former premiers except one, the exception being Lord Rosebery, whose period of office—15 months—was so short as to compare with the meteoric premiership of the age of Caning.

FLASH LIGHTS IN UNISON

Fireflies Seem to Have an Understanding as to When to Begin an Illumination.

Various observers testify to the fact that myriads of glow worms very occasionally indulge in synchronous flashing with very beautiful effect. It is thought by some that this phenomenon is accidental, although in this light some cases would seem incredible.

John V. Purcell of Washington, D. C., records that in the town of Cotabato, island of Mindanao, P. I., a few years ago there were two trees about the size of apple trees and perhaps a hundred yards apart, and every evening these were filled with fireflies which flashed in unison, first one tree lighting up and then the other. There must have been several thousand insects in each tree, yet the synchronism was so perfect that rarely or never did a single firefly flash at the wrong time.

"To the best of my recollection the illumination period lasted about two or three seconds and the dark periods perhaps twice that long. I can positively vouch for the accuracy of the foregoing, for it seemed so strange and produced so beautiful an effect that I thought it one of the most remarkable things in the Philippines, and it made a deep impression on me."

War Brings Peace to New York.

All is peace in New York's toughest district since the war. A year or so ago any person who wandered through the "Gas House" district, off First avenue from Seventeenth to Twenty-second street, at night usually came away minus his watch and roll and with a battered countenance. Many were the actual and alleged breaches of the peace laid to the young manhood of this section of the city. It ran the gamut of everything from riot to murder. Today all this is changed. Since the "Gas House" gang has donned the khaki there is an air of refinement and culture in the district. Men neighbors meet on friendly terms and clothes-line fights and feuds between the women are only memories. Gone is the old order of things material. Fights have given way to celebrations in honor of the lads from the district now fighting in France. There are 171 of them from this section and the other night a service flag was unfurled. It showed five gold stars. Two thousand men, women and children, many of them mothers and fathers, lifted their voices in a pean of consecration.

Twice Cited for Bravery.

To have been cited by the French for bravery twice since his arrival in France in January is the record of Professor Stephen H. Bush of the University of Iowa. In the wake of the first official announcement came a lengthy cablegram with the details of his second citation. "Courage and tenacity in bringing in wounded over exposed places" were conspicuous on the part of Professor Bush, who is working for the Y. M. C. A. with the Moroccan divisions.

The cablegram further declares that the "French are devoted to Professor Bush and the other Y. M. C. A. workers in his division and are gaining a high opinion of Americans through contact with them." Professor Bush is head of the department of romance languages at the university.—Iowa University News Letter.

Marked Out.

The appearance of the letter B on coats coming up this season, which is astonishing people in the rural regions of Wisconsin, is less mysterious than what is said to have happened at Zanzibar, where, so report avers, a fish was caught with two inscriptions in Arabic characters on its tail. These, as deciphered by scholars, were respectively "The work of God" and "God alone." However, the Zanzibar narrative is a fish story.—Milwaukee Evening Wisconsin.

The Best Cough Syrup Is Home-made

Here's an easy way to cure it, and get the best cough remedy you ever tried.

You've probably heard of this well-known plan of making cough syrup at home. But have you ever used it? When you do, you will understand why thousands of families, the world over, feel that they could hardly keep house without it. It's simple and cheap, but the way it takes hold of a cough will quickly earn it a permanent place in your home. Into a pint bottle pour 1/2 cup of Pinex; then add plain granulated sugar syrup to fill up the pint. Or, if desired, use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, it tastes good, never spoils, and gives you a full pint of better cough remedy than you could buy ready-made for three times its cost.

It is really wonderful how quickly this home-made remedy conquers a cough—usually in 24 hours or less. It seems to penetrate through every air passage, loosens a dry, hoarse or tight cough, lifts the phlegm, heals the membranes, and gives almost immediate relief. Splendid for throat tickle, hoarseness, croup, bronchitis and bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and has been used for generations for throat and chest ailments.

Avoid sipping and, by taking your drugstore for 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex with full directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Simple Way To End Dandruff

There is one sure way that has never failed to remove dandruff at once, and that is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, common liquid arvon from any drug store (this is all you will need), apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

SEE NEED OF CITY PLANNING

Japanese Municipal Authorities Awake to Dangers Connected With Congested Centers of Population.

The remarkable expansion of Japanese cities during the last few years has accentuated the urgent necessity of city planning. With this end in view a conference of the mayors of the leading Japanese cities has occurred at Tokyo. Among those present were the mayors of Osaka, Yokohama, Nagoya, Kyoto and Kobe, while Tokyo municipality was represented by Messrs. Kabashima and Ogino.

"In Tokyo, city planning was set on foot twenty years ago, about the same time the question of city planning was receiving attention in Europe and America," said Doctor Seki, mayor of Osaka. In an interview with a Tokyo Yomiuri representative, "In Osaka, however, it is only a few years since the problem began to claim serious attention, although the necessity of city planning in Osaka is perhaps more urgent than in other cities. The density of population in Osaka is certainly greater than in other places and improvement in sanitary and other matters is urgently needed. It is estimated that the population of Osaka twenty years hence will be 2,650,000 and that of the two neighboring districts 2,300,000, making a total of 5,000,000. This estimate is based on the present rate of increase, but it is possible the rate of increase may be larger. Herein lies the urgent nature of city planning for Osaka."

FISH AFFECTED BY WARFARE

Explosion of Mines Off British Coast Has Resulted in Great Diminution of Catches, Is Report.

Wilfred Buzley, who is on the way to his tea plantation in Assam, India, said on his arrival in this city that the frequent explosions of mines off the British coast had caused a great scarcity of fish, according to New York Times. This was especially the case along the east coast of England and Scotland, and had also affected the coast of Holland. Herring, which formerly were plentiful at this season of the year off the coast of Scotland, selling at a cent apiece retail, now bring 18 cents, he said, and were scarce. Flounders and cod, formerly eight to ten cents a pound, are now worth 50 cents at retail. It was only at rare intervals, Mr. Buzley said, that the poor were able to purchase fish.

"The only fish in British waters that appeared to defy the mines and torpedoes," Mr. Buzley continued, "is the hardy halibut. Just before I sailed from England one of the steam trawlers off the coast was about to haul in the lines when the captain noticed a giant halibut following close behind a cod that was impaled on one of the hooks. The halibut made several attempts to swallow the cod and was eventually hauled up onto the deck of the trawler. The skipper told me that the big fish weighed 168 pounds, and was sold in the market for $80."

Franglais a New Tongue.
"Franglais" is a new language that you hear in France today. The word is made out of Francise and Anglais, the French words for French and English—and the language itself is made out of a fearful jumble of words that were perfectly good when they played by themselves, but don't always mix.

Franglais is what you hear where Americans and English men and women without a very good knowledge of their hosts' own speech find themselves at work alongside of French men and French women—soldiers, nurses, relief workers, shopkeepers and all sorts of folk.

American Red Cross workers say that when you gather up several hundred little French babies who have hardly begun to speak any language at all and several hundred little ones who are speaking the universal and universally incomprehensible language of babyhood, the results are one degree harder to understand than grown-up Franglais.

How to Mail Out Flowers.
You have some lovely forget-me-nots in your garden. You would like Mary to have some, but she is so awkwardly far away. Didn't it occur to you that you could mail them satisfactorily, if you only knew how? Here's how.

Separate the large bunch into smaller bunches of perhaps four or five flowers. Now wring out a wad of absorbent cotton in salt water—a teaspoonful to a pint will be sufficient. Break the damp wad into smaller pieces and wrap firmly about the ends of the stems. Finally wrap flower, stems and all, loosely in newspaper, wax paper if you have it. It is a good plan, too, to line the box with the dampened cotton.

Famine in Cherry Stones.

Scarcity of fruit in Great Britain has interfered with the movement for collecting cherry stones and hard nutshells, in which the boy scouts are taking part. Hundreds of tons are needed every year to make charcoal for gas masks, charcoal from these substances having many times more absorptivity than charcoal made from wood.—Springfield Republican.

Eagle Is Pershing's Mascot.

General Pershing's personal mascot is a large golden eagle which the people of his native state sent him and which is now in the Bronx Zoological park, New York. There is a rule against soldiers or regiments taking their living mascots "over there" with them.

Some people burn their bridges behind them because they are toll bridges.

THE MARKETS

Wall Street.
(Associated Press Telegram)

New York, Oct. 3.—Shipping and oil led the active list to substantially higher levels at the opening of today's stock market. Firmer tendencies ruling elsewhere. Over night war news seemed to invigorate short covering in stocks. Steel, which gained a point, Marine preferred was the most conspicuous feature, advancing four points in the first half hour on extensive buying.

Texas company and Mexican Petroleum were next in favor, rising 1 1/2 to 2 points. War shares, however, were higher by fractions to a point, but rails were dull all day.

The further activity of shippings in which the turn over almost doubled that of any other issue, was the noteworthy feature of the forenoon. Marine preferred reached a new high of two points on realizing sales and also proved susceptible to profit taking. United States Steel reflected substantial support and early gains among war shares and allied specialties were only moderately impaired. Rails continued dull and irregular with declines. American Telephone, however, made a further gain of 2 points. French government also rose to the year's highest record of 101 1/2.

Chicago Grain and Provisions.

Chicago, Oct. 3.—Prospects of an unyielding answer to the German peace note tended today to bring about an upturn in the price of corn. Opening prices which ranged from 1/2 to 1 1/4 higher, with November 1.25 to 1.25 1/2, and December 1.24 to 1.24 1/2, were followed by a slight reaction and then a moderate fresh advance.

Oats ascended with corn. After opening unchanged to 3/4c higher, with November 68 1/2 to 69 1/2, the market continued to advance. Depression in hog values weakened provisions. Pork and ribs fell the maximum.

Columbus, Oct. 3.—The Ohio Supreme Court today over ruled a motion for an appeal in the case of Brazil Spillman, Cincinnati negro, convicted of the murder of William Seely, Jan. 7, 1917. Recently Governor Cox granted Spillman a reprieve until October 18, that the appeal might be heard by the Supreme Court.

When Bathrobe Replaces Khaki in the Liberty Quartet

Children of Convalescent Soldiers are Welcome Visitors at the Red Cross Convalescent Houses.

Ma, Pa, the Kids and the Fighters in Khaki!

An invincible combination, as the Red Cross always has known and the Kaiser is beginning to realize. And because it is such a good Liberty Quartet, the Red Cross is doing everything in its power to bring them together whenever the meeting will not interfere with serious business, but will help maintain the wonderful morale of the American soldier. When seas or long railroad journeys separate the group the Red Cross helps them keep in touch with each other by mail or wire. It sees to it that the soldier in the trenches does not have cause to worry about his home folks. Through Home Service it makes certain that soldiers' families lack for nothing. Where a soldier is sick or wounded it keeps his people fully informed.

The Red Cross Convalescent Houses opened, or soon to be in commission at every big Army and Navy Hospital in America, are great agencies for bringing these groups together. A soldier always likes to see his "folks," but when wounds or illness force him to doff his trim khaki and toss in bed or roam around in a bathrobe while convalescing in the hospital section he needs his folks worse than at any other time. The Red Cross hospital man, of course, keeps mother or wife constantly informed by letter of the patient's condition. But letters cannot take the place of speech or soothing touch. The military surgeons will tell you that in many cases a brief visit will do more to "pep" a man up and hasten his recovery than any prescription they can write or the pharmacist compound. So if the case is doubtful the Red Cross Service man turns heaven and earth to get the home folks to the bedside in record time.

But even if the soldier is recovering and is allowed to get up and lounge around there are still two things he needs—a talk with his folks and plenty of restful amusement. It is no fun to ramble around the aisles of a hospital ward, seeing other less fortunate men making their fight for life. Playing cards or checkers on a cot is awkward, especially when any noise may disturb a chap tossing around on the next cot. "Smokes" don't taste just right mixed with the smell of iodine or ether.

And a visit from the home folks under such conditions, while fine, of course, is not entirely satisfying. Doctors and nurses are always flitting about. You feel as if you shouldn't talk out loud. It is about as hard to laugh a real lung-clearing snort of a laugh in a sick ward as it would be to guffaw in church. If Mother brings one of the kids along, he gets restless and begins to finger all sorts of things

Mother is constantly saying, "Sh-h-h-h" and jumping up to drag the baby out of delightful mischief.

But the Red Cross knew all this from the start and therefore began rushing up its houses as soon as the hospitals were located. In these real men's clubs there is a spacious room filled with big, comfortable chairs and lounges; all sorts of games and magazines are at hand; a player piano and a phonograph await the musical. At some hospitals the nearby communities have contributed billiard tables for those who are again able to be on their pins. The library donated by the American Library Association offers the latest popular novel or technical and solid volumes for the educationally ambitious, and a librarian is there to advise or to get any title not on the shelves. Comfortable writing desks with pens that really write and ink that really flows and blotters that blot invite frequent letters home and especially long ones to the "girl left behind." To judge what a lot of paper these convalescents are, just glance over the stationery orders from these houses. "Rush 30,000 letter heads," says one requisition, "and print the Red Cross on it. For some reason many of the convalescents will not write unless they can get the House paper."

And are Ma and Pa and the kids of convalescents welcome at these houses? And Wife and Sis? The pictures supply the answer. But this one qualification must be made; the convalescents come first, and visitors, of course, do not wish to crowd them out of the rest chairs. And the Liberty Quartet can talk and laugh as they like, because every one else is doing the same thing, whether in the club-room, the solarium or sun-porch, out on the broad, shady verandas, or even in the Red Cross war garden. Very likely some one is demonstrating his skill as a piano chauffeur at the automatic, while another bunch is out-singing the "Over There" record. The kids, too, are in no danger of eating a bunch of somebody's pills, and the rest of the men are tickled to death to play with the youngsters—want to borrow them for awhile, in fact. As one private puts it, "You sure can have a real visit with the folks at the Red Cross Convalescent House. And say, if your lady friend comes to see you just notice how the other guys lose all interest in your particular corner."

Upstairs, especially for the mother or the little wife, there are twelve neat bedrooms away from the noise and life of the big living room and its evening picture shows, concerts or entertainments. These bedrooms are for relatives summoned to be with a very sick boy. Many of the hospitals are miles away from hotels or other places where visitors can stay. In these rooms the relatives, always near the hospital, can rest and yet be summoned quickly in case of a bad turn. And if their man passes beyond they are cared for and comforted by the friends, the Red Cross house-mother or trained nurse and the Red Cross Camp Service Force who are there to do everything possible for every soldier and his family.

A STORE IS KNOWN BY THE CUSTOMERS IT KEEPS

The When Customers know these two important business facts:

They Know What They Want— They Know How To Get It

We are proud of the kind of store-keeping that holds customers like that.

And we can boast of our Store without self-praise. Because The When Store belongs to its Customers.

The Customers have made the Store more than the Store has made the Customers.

We have grown and prospered as we have reflected the Customer's viewpoint.

We shall continue to grow and prosper because more and more men and women are finding out what kind of Store we keep. And as they find us out we keep more and more Customers.

We are very proud of our Customers. We are proud that we are their kind of a Store.

We like to sell clothing to men and women who know what they want and know when they get it.

And thousands of them are getting it—JUST THAT. Because if they were not we would know it first.

The When Store guarantee assures that.

It says, and means what it says, that if for any reason you are not satisfied with the goods you bought from us, we will gladly make it right at any time.

AMUSEMENTS

GRAND.
Loved by two women, the wife of his closest friend and a little seamstress he has befriended, and spurned by the wife to whom he is devoted, the life of John Howard becomes a tragedy in "Triangle Lovers," the Vitaphone Blue Ribbon Feature which will be seen in the Grand theatre Tuesday and Wednesday. Finally sent to prison by his wife when he seeks to protect her name, he serves his sentence and comes out sworn to revenge, but a lightning bolt lights his way to complete happiness.

AUDITORIUM.
Do you want to see the Kaiser bled in an oven? Do you want to see it made so hot for him that he is blown up through the ceiling? That's only one of the things that happen to Little William A. Mitty in "The Geizer of Berlin," an exceptionally funny travesty on "The Kaiser, the Beast of Berlin." Come and take a crack at the dignity of the All Highest, make fun of him and his silly son to your heart's content. See the German war lords, von Turpin and Hindenburg, ridiculed. See how the Clown Quince started the war by conceiving an idea turned the result desired when the deluge came. Day after day it poured in a steady driving torrent. When the storm ceased, the cinema street had taken on precisely the weather worn and tumbled-down appearance desired. The houses and the palace of King Herod looked as though they had been standing on the big Fox lot since the day of "Salome" herself. The illusion of age was perfect.

ALHAMBRA.
Wednesday and Thursday.
A picture which is heralded as one of the greatest detective stories ever screened starts at the Alhambra theatre on Wednesday of this week. This is entitled "Queen of Hearts," and has as its star Virginia Pearson, the emotional actress, whose past performance patrons of the Alhambra theatre have often enjoyed. Harry O. Hoyt, a man who devotes the major portion of his time to writing for the screen, is its author. It is, indeed, seldom that a modern writer, least of all a writer of picture plays, is credited with doing something big, something really startling. But critics have claimed that "Queen of Hearts" is fully capable of ranking with the best Sherlock Holmes

Lillian Gish and Robert Harron in D. W. Griffith's "Hearts of the World," to be shown at the Auditorium October 10, 11 and 12

—the first idea he had ever had. See how the baker of Louvain took revenge and baked his royal crust to a crisp. You can't afford to miss "The Geizer of Berlin" being screened at the Auditorium theatre.

Mary Pickford.
The Artcraft picture now being shown at the Auditorium theatre, "Amarilly of Clothes Line Alley," starring Mary Pickford, presents varied types in portraying the contrast between the upper stratum of society and the people of Clothes Line Alley, the center of the slum district. The popular star is introduced as a scrub girl, and Kate Price, whose comical actions in the films are known to all patrons of picture houses, plays the part of Amarilly's mother, a good-natured and tender-hearted washerwoman.

Norman Kerry, whose romantic love-making has caused countless feminine hearts to flutter, appears as a wealthy young dilettante who shocks his mother into hysterics when he evinces an inclination to marry the bewitching scrub girl. Others in the cast are Wm. Scott, Ida Waterman, Margaret Landis, Thomas H. Wilson, Fred Goodwins, Herbert Standing, Wesley Barry, Frank Butterworth, Arthur Short, George Hackathorne and Gertrude Short.

While amusing scenes predominate, there are moments of great pathos, and sensational incidents furnish the necessary thrills. It is seen today and tomorrow.

"Hearts of the World."
D. W. Griffith's "Hearts of the World" is to the photo-play world what Grand Opera is to the world of song. It is said to surpass all previous efforts in the silent drama, which is saying a great deal when taking into consideration Mr. Griffith's other numerous triumphs, including "The Birth of a Nation" and "Intolerance." The battle scenes of the play, taken on the battlefields of France, are wonderful, but a charming part of it all is, that while it has the great war as a background, it possesses a love romance that is sweet and wholesome; is enlivened throughout with delightful comedy, and will be given at the Auditorium theatre beginning Thursday night, with Friday and Saturday to follow, to the "merry strains of a symphony orchestra of twenty" pieces.

The principal stars of the cast include such celebrities as Lillian Gish and Robert Harron, Josephine Crowell, Kate Bruce, George Fawcett, Robert Anderson, George A. Sargent, Master Ben Alexander, Mrs. Gish, mother of the two girls and many others. Matinees will be given on Friday and Saturday.

Auditorium Is Aired.
Manager Penhag is one theatrical manager in the city of Newark who is taking the pains to safeguard his patrons who visit his theatre, for he is having the theatre fumigated, aired and thoroughly sanitized before opening the doors for each performance. He does not expect to have the Spanish influenza given any of his patrons, that is, if he can help it, and has arranged to give the theatre a complete airing and disinfection before each performance. Parents can safely send their children to the Auditorium, for its largeness and the fact that every window is opened during the morning and the dust and dirt entirely driven out of the theatre, assures an extremely clean and airy atmosphere.

Main Assist Artists.
If motion picture producers could have their way, the famous Statue would be as dry as a stick and uninteresting as a roller skate in Alaska. No longer, then, would film makers have to leave their productions were held up by the elements.

stories, or the best adventures of Raf-fles.

Tonight.
If you have an ounce of patriotic blood in your veins see "The United States Marines" at the Alhambra theatre today, for it will make your blood tingle with a longing to do and aid in the world's great crisis.

Of the United States Marines who took part in "The Unbeliever" 128 now actually have been killed on the blood-red fields of France and Belgium; they have "gone west," and they answer no more to any earthly roll-call; they are of those who have gloriously died that mankind might gloriously live in freedom. Among the dead is Lieut. Shaughnessy of the picture, whose death scene there was the precursor of the grim death that came to him. The hero of the story starts with unbelief in both God and his fellow men, save as the latter are represented by his own "set" and the companionship and the God of the trenches and No Man's Land beats his unbelief out of him. Hand in hand with the mighty realities of fraternal love and the faith that is with those who die, his unbelief drops from him like a worn-out garment. He cannot doubt when he dimly sees the mighty hand that is guiding all in this great struggle.

COUNTY GIVES 6,000 GARMENTS TO BELGIANS

The response to the appeal made by the Red Cross for clothing of all kinds for the people of Belgium and northern France, was most generous. The people of Newark have given enough to fill 25 large packing cases.

The contents are: 1,111 women's garments, 1,225 children's garments, 813 men's garments, 297 pairs of shoes, 41 pieces of bedding. Total 2,187; $5.75 in money.

The county report is as follows: Alexandria 338 garments, Etna 159, Granville 426, Hanover 87, Hebron 693, Jersey 178, Johnston 1,246, Vanatta St. Total 3,213 garments.

The school children responded nobly, especially Woodside school and Franklin addition. The Woman's Relief Corps and general over sight of the collection and packing and rendered splendid service.

TELLS DYSPEPTICS WHAT TO EAT

Avoid Indigestion, Sour Acid Stomach, Heartburn, Gas on Stomach, Etc.
Indigestion and practically all forms of stomach trouble, say medical authorities, are due nine times out of ten to an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach. Chronic "acid stomach" is exceedingly dangerous, and sufferers should do either one of two things. Either they can go on a limited and often disagreeable diet, avoiding foods that disagree with them, that irritate the stomach and lead to excess acid secretion or they can eat as they please in reason and make it a practice to counteract the effect of the harmful acid and prevent the formation of gas, sourness or premature fermentation by the use of a little Bismarck Magnesia at their meals.

There is probably no better, safer or more reliable stomach antacid than Bismarck Magnesia and it is widely used for this purpose. It has no direct action on the stomach and is not a digestant. But a teaspoonful of the powder or a couple of five grain tablets taken in a little water with the food will neutralize the excess acidity which may be present and prevent its further formation. This removes the whole cause of the trouble and the meal digests naturally and healthfully without need of peptic pills or artificial digestants.

Get a few ounces of Bismarck Magnesia from the reliable druggist. Ask for either powder or tablets. It never comes as a liquid, milk or citrate and in the liquid form is not a laxative. Try this plan and eat what you want at your next meal and see if this isn't the best advice you ever had on "what to eat."

"As a laxative, and for stomach trouble, Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a wonderful remedy. I suffered greatly from indigestion and found relief after using one bottle." (From a letter to Dr. Caldwell written by Cecil Fitzgerald, 829 14th St., Parkersburg, W. Va.)

Constipation is a condition that should never be neglected. The eliminative process is an essential factor in digestion and on its proper functioning depends the welfare of the entire system. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin relieves constipation without griping or other discomfort.

Did You Get a Letter From France?

From the boy over there? A little message of love; a word of cheer and courage? Did he tell you about France—dear, treasured France, so weary and torn from the awful war?

Did he mention the roads over which he marched to the front—that they were once the trails beaten through forests by the legions of Caesar? By illustrious Joan of Arc? Had he heard the twilight minstrels in the villages or seen the flowered orchards, trysting places for Henry of Navarre?

Had he visited any of the villages where the madden Hun accomplished his awful work or met any of the families withered in that dreadful blast?

But his letters are short. He has so much to say; so little time to say it, and only a little can he go around.

HERE'S ONE LETTER THAT IS COMPLETE. It forgets no facts, it neglects no details. It is a letter of love, of heroism, of yesterday, of today, of romance, of simple faith, of superb devotion.

It is comedy—comedy such as Joseph Jefferson would have been proud to have been a part of—laughter, broad humor filled with humanity that fairly rocks the house with mirth.

You will laugh through tear-dimmed eyes. It is thrills, it is bold adventure and daring deed. It amuses, entertains, excites, enralls. It is life, it is France, it is war. England and France commanded David W. Griffith, as the supreme dramatic genius of the age, to prepare it.

They gave him the real battlefields of France from whence to draft this letter in dramatic form and placed armies at his command that he might properly prepare his story which was to be a message to the American people and to the world.

It is "Hearts of the World," and has proven an epic as great as its subject—humanity's hope of happiness after sorrow.

This wonderful message is to be delivered to the people of Newark at the

Court of Appeals Gives the Company Two Weeks and City One Week To File.

The court of appeals will pass on the motion for dismissal of the suit brought by The Newark Natural Gas and Fuel company, after the company and the city have filed briefs with the court relating to the case. The court of appeals is in session here today and it was announced that two weeks will be given the plaintiff company to file its brief and that the city would have one week to file its reply. A decision will be announced by the court after considering the briefs.
The suit is the action brought to determine the ownership of that portion of the gas escrow fund arising from the sale of gas between Aug. 1, 1915 and March 23, 1916. The sum involved is $29,434.54, being the balance left after more than $69,000 was distributed by order of the court more than a year ago.

The October term of the court of ages as the result of a fire which the defendant is claimed to have started upon his farm in Bowling Green town-tiff alleges damaged his property in the above amount.

MAYOR FINES FEMALE
PUGS $100; THEY LEAVE

There was a regular boxing exhibition at La Willard-Fulton in the rear of 32 South Fifth street yesterday afternoon, in which there was a double match Newark being represented by Irene Jones, Lucy Fursiele and Frank Allen and Zanesville by Dotty
Knott and Genevieve Siegel. The latter went down and out after the reference, Police Chief Jas. Sheridan had decided that the local contingent won the five were given a joy ride to the city prison and this morning Mayor
Atherton fined the battling Amazons $100 each and the costs but remitted the same upon the promise of the women to leave the city and never return.
Shortly after Dotty and Genevieve started eastward for the bridge city while Irene will leave for Wheeling. The men were fined $5 and the costs each and remanded to the city prison.

DRIVING RIVETS SLOW WORK

Not Only That, but Enormous Number of Them Are Needed in a Steel Ship.

The largest single item in the labor of fabricating a steel ship is in the riveting of her hull; therefore the driving of rivets is taken as a standard of size and of progress by most of the shipbuilders. To build a 10,000 ton ship a week means the driving of about 650,000 rivets in that time. The Union shipyards of San Francisco, as at present equipped and freed from labor troubles, can drive about 300,000 rivets, although in a record week it drove 411,000 rivets; the four next largest yards in America—at Fore River, Mass., at Newport News, Va., at Camden, and at Philadelphia upon the Delaware—can drive 200,000 to 275,000 rivets a week each. A half dozen smaller steel shipyards will drive from 50,000 to 150,000 each seven days.

Riveting, despite all the inventions devised to speed it up, remains hand work and slow work. A riveting gang consists of two men and two boys—the riveter, his "holder-on," the passer boy and the heater boy. The gang drives from 300 to 375 rivets in the course of a ten-hour day and is tired at the end of it. But when you know that it takes four men all of a working day to drive an average of a little less than 350 rivets, you can begin to see the full size of the labor problem of driving at least 650,000 rivets a week necessary to turn out a 10,000-ton ship at the end of that length of time.
In other words, you need 1,200 men for the riveting gangs alone.

Look at the matter from another angle, writes Edward Hungerford in Harper's. Ten ships a week—the tremendous program for 1918 to which we stand committed—means 6,500,000 rivets a week. And the rivet capacity of our five greatest yards—with a total working force of 50,000 men at the end of 1917—was but 1,350,000 rivets a week. And riveting represents only about 20 per cent in the construction of a ship.

RAISE MISCHIEF WITH WIRES

Remarkable Effect of Aurora Borealis on the Telegraph Wires of the Country.

When the aurora borealis, or "northern lights," pay us a visit there is trouble on all the telegraph and telephone lines. The reason for this seems to be that the aurora borealis, which is really an unusual electric emanation from the sun, sets up abnormal earth currents. The strength of these currents has been measured many times and found to have a potential varying between 425 volts positive and 225 volts negative and a resistance of about 2,000 ohms.

Donald McNeill, assistant electrical engineer of the Postal Telegraph company, who has given much study to this subject, made an official report in 1892, quoted in the Electrical Experimenter, in which he described the effects of earth currents on the ten Atlantic cables then in existence. Most affected was that from Brest to Miquelon island, and the disturbances were greater at the western than at the eastern end, so that often St. Pierre could send messages to Brest but could not receive any.

Long cables were more affected than short ones, southerly ones more than northerly ones, and the abnormal currents seemed to travel mostly from east to west. Sometimes the earth currents are so strong that they injure the condensers. But they are most erratic in their nature and behavior.

The First Romanoff.
Romanoff is the name of the Russian imperial dynasty regnant in the male line from 1613 to 1730, and thenceforward in the female line. Constant intermarriages with German princely houses, however, have made the Romanoff strain of today more German than Russian. Nay, the oldest ancestor of the house of Romanoff, Andrew Kobyla, is said to have come to Moscow from Prussia (1341).
The name Romanoff was given to the family by the boyar Roman Yurie-vitch, the fifth of direct descent from Andrew, who succeeded in getting a female member of his family on the throne of the czars by marrying his daughter to Ivan the Terrible. In February, 1613, Mikhail Fedorovich
Romanoff, a boy of seventeen, was proclaimed czar, grand duke and autocrat of all the Russians in the Red square of Moscow. With this accession to the throne of the famous, or rather il-famed, dynasty began a 304 years' misrule that—let us hope—has ended forever with the forced abdication of Czar Nicholas, in March, 1917.

Fool Growing Plants.
Scientists have found the way to make the sun shine, as it were, upon agriculture. They charge the soil with electricity and the crops, fooled into believing that the sun is shining, commence to grow at a rapid pace. There is no deception about the results of this experiment, which are hailed as an achievement of vast importance in these days of war when the production and conservation of food are so tremendously vital.

In experiments that have been conducted under the auspices of the English government young strawberry plants are said to have increased in yield by 80 per cent, and even old plants are reported to have given 20 per cent more fruit. Potatoes can easily be persuaded, scientists claim, into the belief that a charge of electricity is genuine sunshine, as a result of which their forthwith grow prodigi-ously.

Whatever goes up must always come down but it ought to come down right side up.

That New Fall Dress You Are Beginning To Think About

Is now awaiting your selection. These bright Autumn days suggest new gowns for fall and early winter. Just at this time many attractive news models are being shown, suitable for all occasions.

Smart lines and handsome quality of materials are chief characteristics of the fall models.

The serge frock is nowadays indispensable. One sees it everywhere and yet it never grows monotonous.

The jersey frock, too, is right in the forefront of things fashionable; a little newer, perhaps, than the serge, but not a bit less serviceable.

While for more formal occasions there are endless models developed in crepe-de-chine, taffetas, satins, either alone or combined with Georgette crepes, that for all their flimsiness give an astonishing amount of wear.

But, after all, you'll find it most interesting to try on a few models, and we hope we may have the pleasure of showing you the new fall dresses some time this week.

Handsome Plaid Skirts

While some of the color combinations are striking, others are in rich but subdued tones, that will please the woman of more conservative tastes.

Not only silk, but beautiful wool fabrics in handsome plaids and novelty stripes, are modeled in unusually attractive styles.

The Vogue for Separate Coat

Will make the one piece dress or a fancy skirt a necessary addition to the winter costume, and now will be the time for your selection, when everything that is new and fashionable is on display.

How Different You Will Feel In The Morning—

You'll get up feeling brighter and better than you have for many a day. The reason—Nature's Remedy (N.R. Tablets) is different in action from pills, salts, calomel, oils and ordinary laxatives. It is milder, yet more thorough, because of its beneficial action on the digestive and eliminative organs—the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels. That is how it relieves and eliminates such troubles as Rheumatism, Indigestion and Constipation—it corrects the causes that produce the trouble.

THIS SAMPLE IS A CONVINCER. It is given to prove our claims. When you are convinced, get a 25c box from your druggist.

TO CANVASS FOR TOWNSHIP QUOTA

Granville Loan Committee Seeks To Reach Limit Set In the Shortest Possible Time.

(Special To The Advocate.)

Granville, O., Oct. 8.—Mayor C. D. Coons, of the Liberty loan committee, says that although affairs are progressing favorably at the Granville bank in the matter of subscriptions to the fourth Liberty loan it is no less the intention of the local committee to start a house-to-house canvass in order to more promptly raise the township quota and incidentally to counter-act the effects of the latest futile talk of peace.

It is hoped that the bank on public gatherings in Granville will soon be lifted, at least in time for everyone to hear the great lecture by Dr. S. Parks Cushman of New York, in the Baptist church, Thursday evening, October 17, at 8 o'clock, on the topic "Our Duty in the Present Crisis." He comes under the auspices of the community church council.

Dr. C. J. Loveless, the health officer, of the opinion that "the lot" may be lifted by the latter part of the week and that the people may be trusted to cooperate in abating the spread, even of the old-fashioned grip. School will probably reopen Thursday or Friday.

Miss J. D. Thompson, with a committee of women from the A. F. W. and Miss Lilly Jones, with workers from the King's Daughters, are doing a notable bit of war work in managing mess halls for the students' army training corps. They are serving three meals a day to some 250 hungry men already inducted into military service, and will continue the good service until work on the big mess hall is complete. The A. F. W. operates in the social rooms of the Presbyterian church; the King's Daughters in their own headquarters.

Members of the Beta Theta Pi fraternity entertained friends from Shepard's college at a pleasant party in Curtis hall, Saturday evening. The guests were: Miss McKel, Misses McGee, Young, Fraser, Spencer, Johnson, Hunt, Wilson, Caldwell, Evans, Eldridge, Lois Jones and Irma Jones.

Sunday dinner guests at the Beta house (Curtis hall) were: Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Roberts and family, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. E. Hopkins and family, and Miss Elizabeth Evans.

Miss Dorothea Lapp, who has entered Johns Hopkins university for the three year course in nurses' training, arrives enthusiastically at her work in that great institution. Having progressed through various stages of preliminary study she is now ready for the pharmacy.

Mrs. S. P. Tresize will entertain the Pioneer Relief club at her home, Thursday afternoon, October 17, instead of this week.

A. H. Gaumer of Urbana, was here Saturday, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Scheidt.

Fred Hoof of Zanesville, spent Sunday afternoon with Henry Scheidt of College street.

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Nichol left this morning for Canton, where Mr. Nichol represents the Zanesville Presbytery as delegate to the synod of the Presbyterian church, held there this week.

324TH REGT. GIVES MONEY TO ORPHANS

The generosity of the 324th heavy field artillery and the esteem in which the members were held by the people of Bain-De-Bretagne, where they were billeted for several weeks is told by a French correspondent to the Paris office of the New York Herald. The story appearing in the Paris edition follows:

"Bain-De-Bretagne, Friday.—Lieutenant Colonel Harry Morse has just sent the municipality of Bain-De-Bretagne the sum of 4000 francs to be given, in the name of the officers, non-commissioned officers, and privates of the —regiment of heavy artillery U. S. A. to the war orphans of this commune.

This magnificent donation, due to the initiative of a superior officer of this fine regiment, is a striking testimony of the noble and generous sentiments of our great American allies.

The delicate thought which accompanies these gracious collective subscriptions is marked with the remembrance of the brotherly welcome given at Bain-De-Bretagne to this particular regiment, whose courtesy and distinction are combined most naturally, in all the degrees of military hierarchy, with the spirit of chivalry and the qualities of discipline and good bearing.

The inhabitants of Bain-De-Bretagne will always give the warmest welcome to American regiments which may be quartered in the town, but the 324th will carry away with it their unanimous regrets, sincere good wishes and most cordial sentiments, which will follow it more particularly on the road to victory.

A number of Newark and Licking county men make up the personnel of this regiment.

AKRON WOMAN REGAINS HEALTH

Tanlac Promptly Relieved Her of Stomach and Nervous Trouble.

"My health has improved in every way since taking Tanlac," says Mrs. Mae Kane, who lives at 61 Forest street, Akron. She says:

"I had a bad case of nerve trouble. I felt so ill at times that I was almost afraid to walk in the street alone for fear I might run into some one, I was so dizzy.

"At times I had specks before my eyes and a smothered feeling, and my heart would beat wildly. I could not enjoy food and had little or no appetite. I seldom slept soundly and would feel nervous and irritable after a wakeful night. I had frequent headaches and felt weak and tired continually.

"My food often caused me to suffer from gas and bloating.

"I only took one bottle of Tanlac, but am feeling well. The dizziness and nervousness has now gone and I no longer have trouble with my stomach.

"If you are in need of a good remedy for stomach ailments, or feel nervous and irritable, get TANLAC today. It will do for you what it has done for thousands of others.

"Tanlac may be obtained in Newark at Erman's Arcade Rug Store. Tanlac may also be procured at the Evans' Pharmacy (Warren Hotel block, east side of square, Newark), and the Hebron Drug store, Hebron, O.—(Adv.)
